Highlights of the Week

- CHMSU brought together university key officials, unit heads, college deans, program officers, and student representatives for a comprehensive review and revision of the CHMSU Gender and Development (GAD) Code and Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR), September 22 to 25, 2025. This strategic workshop, held at Hidden Valley Resorts in Pinamungahan, Cebu, reinforced the university's dedication to inclusive policy-making and institutional accountability.
- The Relics of St. Padre Pio graced the CHMSU Alijis Campus and drew a heartfelt gathering of faculty, students, and staff this morning, September 22, 2025. The visit, held at the campus covered court, marked a spiritual prelude to the saint's feast day celebration on September 23.
- The Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth) through its Yaman ng Kalusugan (YAKAP) Program, together with the Human Resource Management Office and PhilHealth Bacolod Branch held the orientation for CHMSU Alijis and Fortune Towne employees on September 22 in their respective Audio Visual Rooms.
- The community of Carlos Hilado Memorial State University (CHMSU) participated in the solemn celebration of the Feast Day of Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina with a Pontifical Mass held on September 23, 2025.

- Congratulations to our very own CHMSU faculty members for bringing pride to the university at the 2025 SUCTEA National Conference and Research Presentation held in Iloilo City! Prof. Jomeo Sumalapao of the College of Education won 1st Place in Research Presentation for Strand B: Innovative Pedagogies for 21st Century Teaching and Learning, while Prof. Joy Picar secured 3rd Place in Research Presentation for Strand D: Policy, Leadership, and Governance in Teacher Education.
- Congratulations to Justine Dale Candelario of BS Psychology Class 2025 for ranking 9th in the Certified Human Resource Associate (CHRA) HREAP Assessment Examination Batch 63. Cadelario is among the six successful passers from CHMSU. The Human Resource Educators' Association of the Philippines, Inc. (HREAP) administered the on-site campus and online assessment examination on August 29, September 2, and 21, 2025.
