Highlights of the Week

- CHMSU reached another international milestone as two faculty members of the College of Education presented in the 1st Asia Pacific Conference on Engineering, Education, Social Science, and Humanities (APCEESH) held at Novotel Bangkok Platinum Pratunam, in Thailand last December 15-16, 2025.
- Atty. Juliet D. Pasustento was designated as Officer-in-Charge, Vice President for Administration and Finance, effective January 5, 2026.
- During exam week, students brought their own mugs and enjoyed FREE coffee at all campus libraries across all four campuses from January 6–10. Hosted by Library and Information Services, this initiative helped keep everyone energized, focused, and ready to tackle their end-term exams.
- The CHMSU Talisay community came together in prayer to give thanks for the end of the first semester of Academic Year 2025–2026. The Holy Mass was presided over by Rev. Fr. Roland Cepe, OAR, and was graciously sponsored by the Talisay-Alijis-Bacolod-Binalbagan Employees Association (TABBEA).
