Highlights of the Week

- University President Norberto Mangulabnan engaged with faculty members of all colleges in a series of consultation meetings held across all campuses. The consultation meetings were held to address faculty inquiries and concerns as CHMSU transitions into the second semester of the academic year.
- The Bachelor of Arts in Social Science third-year students held the "Lakad Komunidad: Igniting Change Across Communities Through Service Learning," a three-day exhibit showcasing their community-based projects and research initiatives at the Dining Hall, Talisay Campus.
- Bachelor of Elementary Education (BEED) 1A students brought joy and values to Grade 1 pupils of Talisay South Elementary through their Paraisong Pambata activity last January 12. During the activity, the students turned over of original storybooks that they authored and held a storytelling session with the young learners.
- University executives convened at the Function Hall, Talisay Campus on January 13, 2026 to plan and strategize for fiscal years 2026 and 2027. The Action Planning Workshop for FY 2026 & 2027 brought together administrators, directors, unit heads, and college deans across all campuses to translate the University's strategic vision into concrete, results-based programs and projects for the upcoming fiscal years.
