Highlights of the Week

- A huge congratulations to the College of Criminal Justice faculty, staff, and our 86 new CHMSU Criminologists for passing the February 2026 Criminology Licensure Examination. With a fantastic 73.2% passing rate for first-time takers and a 70% overall result, your hard work and dedication truly shine.
- Process owners from all campuses underwent first cycle internal audit from March 9-13, 2026 conducted by the Quality Management Office and the Internal Audit Unit.
- Congratulations to the College of Engineering for winning the 2nd Intercollege Debate, with the finals held at the CHMSU Talisay Library on March 12, 2026. The activity was organized by the CHMSU Debate League, FCUSG, and USG Talisay Campus.
- The INTENSE SCHOLARSHIP Program conducted an info-session for graduating students who are interested of studying in Taiwan while building an international career. The info-session was participated by graduating students from Engineering, Information Technology, and Industrial Technology courses from CHMSU-Alijis last March 10, 2026.
- Aspiring senior high school graduates gathered at the Carlos Hilado Memorial State University (CHMSU) Alijis Campus to take the university's entrance examination as part of the admission process for the upcoming academic year from March 9 - 12.
- The Society of Young Management Accountants (SYMA) conducted a SYMA Leadership Workshop on March 12, 2026, at the Fortune Towne Campus Function Hall, gathering class officers and students from different programs for leadership training.
- The 2026 Student Manifesto Summit was held on March 12, 2026, at the Fortune Towne Campus Function Hall, providing platform for students to express and discuss their lived experiences through the lenses of SOGIE (Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and Expression) and DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion).
- CHMSU-FT conducted a "Training on the Promotion of Financial Values and Behavior" on March 13, 2026, at the Barangay Estefania Gymnasium, Bacolod City. The activity gathered participants for discussions on cultivating savings and investment habits and exploring financing options.
