Highlights of the Week

- A total of 148 student leaders from all campuses graduated in the 8th RIPPLES Training Camp held last July 27 to August 1, 2026. Organized by the Office for Student Affairs and Services and the Center for Internationalization and External Relations, the weeklong training was packed with activities, workshops, lectures, and discussions that equipped the young leaders for the upcoming academic year.
- The Planning, Monitoring, and Evaluation (PME) Unit conducted led the conduct of the Mid-Year Agency Performance Review for Fiscal Year 2026. The review was participated in by CHMSU key officials, college deans, and unit heads.
- The Supply and Property Management Unit (SPMU) successfully conducted the Property Accountability Orientation on August 7, 2026, at the Talisay Campus Audio-Visual Room, with employees from various offices across the campus in attendance.
