Highlights of the Week

The Human Resource Development Office conducted a Training on Navigating Education from Higher Ground Through Whole-Brain Self-Mastery and Mindfulness Practice on August 23 – 25, 2023 at the La Vista Highlands Mountain Resort, San Carlos City. Cecilia B. Manikan, EdD was the resource speaker on the topic “Whole-Brain Self-Mastery”. This was attended by all faculty across 4 campuses. This activity is a jump start for the work attitude and values enhancement which aims to revisit the reason why people work, for whom they work, and guide them back to excellence in what they do.

National Service Training Program headed by Elmer A. Gumban, PhD held a Collaborative Review and Enrichment of the NSTP Syllabus to reinforce Instructional Deliver on Vital Topics on August 24 – 25, 2023, at the 3rd Floor, Function Hall, Green Building, Talisay (Main) Campus. This was attended by all NSTP coordinators and selected NSTP instructors. Rhoderick K. Samonte, Director for Internationalization and External Relations, was also invited to share and discuss the Greening CHMSU in line with the new breakthrough goals and strategic direction of the University. Isagani Agudo, PhD, NSTP Instructor, Fortune Towne Campus, discussed and reviewed the Course Syllabus, Kane Sheena Ambong, NSTP Instructor, Talisay (Main) Campus, discussed the crafting of the course syllabus for common module and component courses, and Arlene G. Pasquin gave an overview of the policies related to the registrar.

As the first week of the academic year commences, the entire CHMSU community came together to mark the occasion with a solemn First Friday Mass held at the Function Hall, 3rd floor, Green Building, CHMSU Talisay (Main) Campus on September 1, 2023. The Mass, presided over by Rev. Fr. Leo Ricardo Maria Luanzon, MMHC, was a moment of reflection and unity, where students, faculty, and staff gathered to seek blessings for the upcoming academic journey.

The 56th ASEAN Celebration was concluded with a Flag Retreat ceremony on September 1, 2023 at the University Football Field, CHMSU Talisay (Main) Campus, jointly organized by the Center for Internationalization and Externa Relations, Human Resource Management Office, Vice President for Administration and Finance Office, and Social Science Guild. Present in the ceremony were members of the administration, faculty, staff, and students. This ceremony was ended with a fellowship snack set up at the stage.
