NATIONAL COMMISSION
FOR CULTURE AND THE ARTS

Ani ng Sining Bunga ng Galing

NATIONAL ARTS MONTH 2023

February is National Arts Month (NAM), declared through Presidential Proclamation 683 and signed by former President Corazon C. Aquino in 1991 "to celebrate the artistic excellence and pay tribute to the uniqueness and diversity of the Filipino heritage and culture."

The National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) is the government agency that organizes activities to celebrate NAM. The theme for this year's celebration is "Ani ng Sining, Bunga ng Galing" "to immerse Filipinos in diverse cultural expressions and celebrate the bountiful harvest from the Filipino imagination."

"In celebrating National Arts Month in 2023, "galing" alludes to artistic excellence as well as underscoring the capacity of the arts to heal, rebuild, and restore in a post-pandemic setting," the NCCA said.

As in previous years, activities for NAM are many and this year those will be held up to March, with the flagship projects of the Subcommittee on the Arts (SCA):

For Dance, the celebration will be featured by "Sayaw Pinoy," a touring dance concert which aims to provide a venue for dance groups to exchange choreographic ideas. It was held in Zamboanga Feb. 2-4, and the following weekends in Manila, Kalibo, San Fernando, Mabalacat and Bacolod.

Celebrating Music will be "Musikapuluan: Mga Bagong Tugtugin Natin" that will provide a venue for different music forms and genres from Luzon, Visayas, Mindanao.

For Visual Arts, "Bagong Biswal" will celebrate Filipino art featuring videos from artists with community engagements related to various visual arts, such as painting workshops, sculpture projects, public art installations, public performance art, and art education campaigns.

There are many activities to open the mind, bring delight, and inspire creativity. Bringing a child to the art gallery will be a good start.

Take a break from the usual and pause to appreciate the power of art. Make a Sunday in February your own tribute to art.
